Pamplin news

Mr. and Mrs. George Cheney of Westfield, Mass., enroute to Florida, spent several days last week with their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Williams, Jr.

Rev. Thomas W. Boggs returned home Thursday from Virginia Baptist Hospital.

Miss Donna Smith of Richmond spent last week end with her mother, Mrs. Earl J. Smith.

Mr. Sam Baldwin is home after a stay in Southside Hospital, Farmville.

Mr. Jim Wooldridge of Evergreen underwent surgery last Friday at Lynchburg General Hospital. His condition is reported satisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. David Savitz of Roanoke spent last Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Coleman, Jr., of Seven Springs Farm were in Norfolk Saturday to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, Mr. Leonard Graves.

The Pamplin Ruritan Club will meet at Elon Baptist Church, Feb. 26 at 8:00 p.m. Customers of VEPCO and Southside Electric Company are invited to attend.

Mr. Horace Coleman, newly elected to Board of Supervisors, attended a meeting of Southside Electric Corporation held at the Colonial Restaurant near Rustburg. The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the newly elected officials with the problems confronting them with the need for additional manufacturing capacity. Last summer, for example, the situation was quite serious, a cool spell saved the day otherwise they felt we would have had a "brown out". Part of the presentation was a movie entitled "What Time Will The Current Go Off Today".

The Rev. and Mrs. Edmond Terry have returned to their home in Evergreen after a visit with his mother, Mrs. Christine Terry, in Lafayette, Ind.

Jack Baker, Steve Baker, Gary Baker, Bobby Mobley and Allen Harris of Evergreen attended the races in Daytona Beach, Florida last week-end.
